

Buyer's Protection

Everything you need to know about your credit card insurance

Combined Financial Services Guide, Product Disclosure Statement and Policy (PDS)
 Prepared on 10 December 2018

Overview

Why is this document important?

This PDS explains Buyer's Protection, an optional insurance that is available to Latitude GO Mastercard® account holders. It's important that you read the PDS carefully before you decide to buy it so you understand:

- the purpose of credit card insurance
- that you are not obliged to purchase this product
- what Buyer's Protection covers and what it doesn't cover
- whether you are eligible to apply and how to apply
- how much it costs
- how to make a claim
- the terms and conditions of your policy.

Buyer's Protection is a form of optional consumer credit insurance that could help cover your repayments if you are unable to work or pass away. You may also be able to arrange this insurance through a different insurer. Details of commissions paid in relation to Buyer's Protection are on page 14.

The PDS will help you to make an informed decision about this product. The cover details referred to throughout apply only to your account. Keep this document in a safe place, as you'll need it if you want to contact us or make a claim.

In this document, words and phrases appearing in bold type have special meanings. We've explained these in our Definitions. If you're still not clear and need further explanation, please call us on 1800 800 230.

You should always consider if this product is suitable for you.

Your personal circumstances might reduce the value of this product for you. For example, if you:

- suffered an illness or injury in the 12 months before applying for Buyer's Protection that affects your ability to work, you may not be able to claim for Disability, or
- are not working, you may not be able to claim for disability or involuntary unemployment.

Your duty to tell us the truth

It's very important that you are honest in all your dealings with us. Otherwise you may not receive the full benefits of your policy.

Who is the insurer?

Hallmark Life is the insurer for Life and Critical Illness.

Hallmark General is the insurer for Price Protection, Merchandise Protection, Stolen Card, Disability and Involuntary Unemployment.

Each insurer takes full responsibility for the whole PDS.

What is Buyer's Protection?

Buyer's Protection is an optional insurance that gives you the confidence to shop with your Latitude GO Mastercard in the knowledge that you're covered if things go wrong. It will help you meet your payment obligations if you pass away, lose your job unexpectedly or become unfit for work. It also provides extra shopping protection for purchases made using your Latitude GO Mastercard, including cover for loss or damage to your purchases and reimbursing the difference if your purchase is available at a lower price.

You can take out Buyer's Protection if you:

- have a Latitude GO Mastercard account,
- are aged between 18 and 64 inclusive, and
- are a resident of Australia.

There's a maximum benefit

The maximum policy benefit we'll pay is $20,000. That means you can make multiple claims during the period you are insured, but the maximum total we will pay across all of those claims is $20,000.

We pay benefits to your Latitude GO Mastercard

We pay all benefits directly to your account, even if your account has a zero balance or is in credit when we pay the benefit.

Like to use your Latitude GO Mastercard with confidence? Apply through our Online Service Centre at www.gomastercard.com.au/osc or telephone us on 1300 462 273.

Shopper's benefits

Shopper's benefits overview and limits

This benefit...	...covers the risk of...	...up to
Price Protection	Your Latitude GO Mastercard purchases being available at lower prices	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • $1,000 per item • $5,000 in any 12 month period
Merchandise Protection	Loss, theft or damage to your Latitude GO Mastercard purchases	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • $2,000 per item • $5,000 for loss or damage arising from a single cause or incident • $10,000 in any 12 month period
Stolen Card	Theft of your Latitude GO Mastercard	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • $200 in any 12 month period

Shopper's benefits are all subject to the maximum policy benefit of $20,000, which is the maximum we will pay across all claims under any cover that you make under this policy.

We cap Price Protection and Merchandise Protection benefits relating to the same item to its original purchase price.

Price Protection

How does it work?

If you buy an item in Australia with your Latitude GO Mastercard and within 12 months the item is available at a lower price at the same retailer or any other Australian retailer, we'll pay the difference between the purchase price and the lower price to your account.

This also applies to items you buy:

- for someone else as a gift,
- through a mail/telephone order catalogue or online order, and
- for up to 120 days before the start of the policy.

The item with the lower price must be exactly the same as the item you bought, including size, colour, quality and condition, make and model number, attachments and accessories and the lower price must occur after the start of your Buyer's Protection policy.

Give me an example

If you buy an item for $600 and then see it for $400 in a different Australian retailer, we'd pay $200 to your account.

Limits to the cover

We'll pay up to $1,000 per item, up to a maximum of $5,000 for all items in any 12 month period.

Proportionate benefit

If you paid only part of the price with your card, we'll pay a proportionate benefit. For example, if you paid 50% in cash and 50% with your card, we'd pay 50% of the price difference.

Combined benefits

We won't pay a combined Price Protection and Merchandise Protection benefit that is more than the original purchase price for an item.

Foreign exchange

We'll calculate the price difference on items bought in a foreign currency at the business banking rate at which Westpac Banking Corporation purchases cash in that currency on the day we assess your claim. Acting reasonably, we can change the rate we use and if Westpac does not quote the currency of your claim we may use an alternate foreign exchange provider.

Returned items

We may recover from you any amount we pay in respect of a Price Protection claim for any item that is subsequently returned for a refund of the purchase price. We may, for example, deduct such amounts from any future claims paid under this policy.

What isn't covered?

Price Protection does not cover a lower price:

- due to price matching,
- that is conditional on cash payment,
- offered as part of a special deal involving other items or benefits,
- that is wholesale, direct from importers, duty free, for commercial quantities or trade buyers,
- due to corporate discounts, non-public or club membership discounts, or group buy offers,
- due to inclusion of cash back offers (whether cash, vouchers, credit or otherwise),
- due to pricing error or mispriced item,
- where the item is not in stock and immediately available (e.g. no backorders or rain checks),
- on marketplace, daily deal or auction websites, except a 'buy it now' price of an Australian retailer's online store within one of these websites,
- at any other Australian retailer's 'closing down', 'going out of business', or similar sale.

Price Protection does not cover the following items:

- jewellery, precious metals and precious stones
- cash or its equivalent (including gift vouchers, traveller's cheques, tickets, postal orders and other negotiable instruments)
- perishable items including foodstuffs, groceries, beverages (both alcoholic and non-alcoholic) and other consumables
- animals and living plants
- used and second-hand items
- special-order, tailor-made or one-of-a-kind items
- items offered during a 'closing down', 'going out of business' or similar sale
- items sold as floor display discounts, imperfect, seconds or damaged items
- items returned for a refund
- items purchased outside Australia.

Merchandise Protection

How does it work?

If you buy an item in Australia for more than $10 with your Latitude GO Mastercard and within 12 months of its purchase the item is lost, stolen or damaged, we'll pay to your account, at our option, either:

- the original purchase price, or
- the cost of repair or replacement.

This also applies to items bought for someone else as a gift.

Give me an example

If you bought an item for $500 and then a few days later it was accidentally broken beyond repair, we'd pay $500 to your account.

Limits to the cover

- Each item is covered up to $2,000. If more than one thing happens to an item (for example, it is stolen and then found damaged), we'll only pay the lesser of the original purchase price or $2,000 for that item.
- If more than one item is lost, stolen or damaged at the same time, we'll pay up to $5,000 in total for that event.
- In any 12 month period, we'll pay a maximum of $10,000 for all items under Merchandise Protection.

Proportionate benefits

- If only part of a set of items is lost, stolen or damaged, and the remaining part can be used separately, we'll pay a proportionate benefit.
- If you paid only part of the price with your card, we'll pay a proportionate benefit. For example, if you paid 50% in cash and 50% with your card, we'd pay 50% of the benefit.

Combined benefits

We won't pay a combined Price Protection and Merchandise Protection benefit that is more than the original purchase price for an item.

What isn't covered?

Merchandise Protection doesn't cover:

- items bought for less than $10
- the disappearance of any item in circumstances that you can't explain to our reasonable satisfaction
- items purchased outside of Australia
- loss, theft or damage due to:
 - atmospheric or weather conditions, including the action of light
 - normal wear and tear
 - an inherent product defect in the item
 - you or someone in your household committing an illegal act
 - the action of insects, vermin, fungus, rust or pets
 - electrical or mechanical breakdown
 - maintaining, cleaning, restoring, dyeing or repairing the item
 - using the item for business purposes
- you or someone in your household physically abusing or not taking reasonable care of the item, or leaving it unattended in a public place, in an unlocked car, or with a person who deliberately damages it
- the following items:
 - watches
 - jewellery, precious metals and precious stones
 - cash or its equivalent (including gift vouchers, traveller's cheques, tickets, postal orders and other negotiable instruments)
 - perishable items including foodstuffs, groceries, beverages (both alcoholic and non-alcoholic) and other consumables
 - animals and living plants
 - used and second-hand items.

Stolen Card

How does it work?

If your Latitude GO Mastercard is reported to the police as stolen we'll pay $200 to your account, just for the inconvenience.

Limits to the cover

You can only make one Stolen Card claim in any 12 month period.

What isn't covered?

We won't pay a Stolen Card benefit if:

- you fail to report the theft to the police, or can't give us an incident number and the contact details of the police station where the theft was reported
- you take part in an illegal or criminal activity
- you lose your card, or don't take enough precautions to protect the card against theft.

Give me an example

If you owed $11,000 on your account when you die, we'd pay $11,000 to your account.

Limits to the cover

We'll pay a maximum of $20,000.

Critical Illness

How does it work?

If you are diagnosed with a critical illness, we'll pay to your account the balance owing on the date of diagnosis or operation.

The following are critical illnesses for the purpose of this cover:

- heart attack
- stroke
- major organ transplant
- kidney failure
- coronary artery disease requiring surgery
- cancer.

We've defined these illnesses in our Definitions. So long as we remain a member of the Financial Services Council, when the Life Code of Practice (Life Code) defines one of these illnesses, we'll apply the definition that's best for you. So, if the Life Code definition would result in your Critical Illness claim being approved and ours would not, we will pay your claim. You can read the Life Code at www.fsc.org.au/policy/life-insurance/code-of-practice. We'll send you a copy free of charge if you ask for one.

Give me an example

- If you owed $11,000 on your account when you are diagnosed with cancer, we'd pay $11,000 to your account.
- If you owed $21,000 on your account when you are diagnosed with cancer, we'd pay $20,000 to your account.

Limits to the cover

We'll pay a maximum of $20,000.

What isn't covered?

We won't pay a benefit for any critical illness that occurs within 12 months of the start date of the policy if you have had symptoms, advice or treatment from a doctor for that condition within the 12 months before the policy started.

We won't pay a benefit for any critical illness that occurs within 90 days of the start date of the policy, or that results from, or as a consequence of, any of the following:

- angina pectoris
- non-cardiac chest pain
- transient ischaemic attacks, reversible ischaemic neurological deficit, vascular disease affecting the optic nerve, cerebral symptoms due to migraine or cerebral injury resulting from trauma or hypoxia

Disability

How does it work?

If:

- you had been working at the time of your disablement for at least six consecutive months, and
- you are continuously disabled for at least 30 days and unable to work,

we'll pay to your account a monthly benefit of 10% of the balance owing (at least $30 and up to $1,000 per month) on the statement immediately before the date of the accident, illness or injury causing disability, until you return to work.

We calculate benefits on a daily basis, that is, 1/30th for each day of disability for which you can claim. For example, if after a 30-day qualifying period you are disabled for a further 15 days, we'd pay for 45 days.

Give me an example

- If you are disabled for 8 months and your monthly benefit is calculated at $200, we'd pay $1,600.
- If you are disabled for 4 months and your monthly benefit is calculated at $1,200, we'd pay $4,000 (because the maximum monthly benefit is $1,000).
- If you are disabled for 10 days, we'd pay nothing because you are not disabled for 30 days.

Limits to the cover

We'll pay the monthly benefits while you continue to be disabled or until any of the following occurs:

- we have paid the closing balance on the statement immediately before the disability, or
- we have paid in total 36 monthly benefits on account of disability or involuntary unemployment.

Combined benefits

The maximum policy benefit period is 36 months for disability and involuntary unemployment combined. If you make multiple disability or involuntary unemployment claims during the period you are insured, we will only ever pay a total of 36 monthly benefits.

What isn't covered?

We won't pay a benefit:

- if you have not been working at the time of disablement for at least six consecutive months, or for:
- a disability that occurs within 30 days after the date when the policy starts
- a period of disability of less than 30 consecutive days
- a disability arising from a sickness or injury within the first 12 months of the start date of the policy if you had symptoms, advice or treatment from a doctor for that condition within the 12 months before the policy started.

- don't seek medical advice or fail to undertake treatment from a medical practitioner continuously while you are disabled
- return to gainful occupation
- take part in a criminal activity
- are receiving a monthly benefit for involuntary unemployment.

Involuntary Unemployment

How does it work?

If:

- you have been working for at least six consecutive months when you become involuntarily unemployed, and
- you are continuously unemployed for at least 30 days,

we'll pay to your account a monthly benefit of 10% of the balance owing (at least $30 and up to $1,000 per month) on the statement immediately before the date you were notified of your impending unemployment, until you return to work.

We calculate benefits on a daily basis, that is, 1/30th for each day of involuntary unemployment for which you can claim. For example, if after a 30-day qualifying period you are involuntarily unemployed for a further 15 days, we'd pay for 45 days.

Give me an example

- If you are unemployed for 4 months and your monthly benefit is calculated at $500, we'd pay $2,000.
- If you are unemployed for 6 months and your monthly benefit is calculated at $1,200, we'd pay $6,000 (because the maximum monthly benefit is $1,000).
- If you are unemployed for 10 days, we'd pay nothing because you are not unemployed for 30 days.

Limits to the cover

We'll pay the monthly benefits while you continue to be unemployed until any of the following occurs:

- we have paid the closing balance on the statement immediately before the unemployment, or
- we have paid 12 monthly benefits, or
- we have paid, in total, 36 monthly benefits on account of disability or involuntary unemployment.

Combined benefits

The maximum policy benefit period is 36 months for disability and involuntary unemployment combined. That means if you make multiple disability or involuntary unemployment claims during the period you are insured, we will only ever pay a total of 36 monthly benefits.

What isn't covered?

We won't pay a benefit if you:

- have not been working for at least six consecutive months at the time you become unemployed
- become unemployed within 30 days after the date when the policy starts
- are unemployed for fewer than 30 consecutive days

- become unemployed because you have to provide regular and sustained care to a family member for a disability that occurred in the first 12 months of the start date of the policy, if the family member had symptoms, advice or treatment from a doctor for that disability within 12 months before the policy started.

We may also ask you to undergo a medical examination (at our cost) by a doctor we nominate who will report to us.

What it costs

Buyer's Protection costs 1% of the monthly closing balance of your account, up to a maximum monthly premium of $50. It is debited to your account and payable monthly.

The following table gives some examples:

Balance owing at the end of the monthly statement cycle	Monthly premium
Nil	Nil
$500	$5
$1,000	$10
$1,500	$15
$4,000	$40
$6,000	$50
$10,000	$50

We calculate your premiums monthly

We calculate your premium monthly, based on the closing balance of your account. If your balance is zero on the day we print your statement, we don't charge a premium that month.
